Important Notes

- All individuals working, studying, volunteering or engaging in activities on education and/or training sites, including schools, are expected to be of good character and model appropriate behaviour and conduct at all times.
- New charges and/or convictions received must be reported immediately to the principal or site manager, or supervisor/head of the volunteer or community organisation.
- Charges and/or convictions may jeopardise this screening clearance and future opportunities for employment, study, volunteering or engaging in activities on an education and/or training site as a community member.

Dear Leslie

Thank you for consenting to a Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check (NCCHC) being submitted to the Australian Criminal Intelligence Commission by the Department of Education's Screening Unit.

All individuals working, studying, volunteering or engaging in activities on education and/or training sites, including schools, are expected to be of good character and model appropriate behaviour and conduct at all times.

In processing your application, the Screening Unit received a record of your criminal history from the Australian Criminal Intelligence Commission (a copy is attached) and reviewed the convictions against the Criminal Convictions Suitability Criteria

I can confirm that based on the information available, you have been granted a Screening Clearance Number (SCN6CYE1NP47K) which is current as at 20/09/2024. Your Criminal Record Clearance Confirmation certificate is attached.

For further information, including on the validity period of your clearance, refer to: Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check - Department of Education

Your criminal history has been noted and any further charges and/or convictions must be reported immediately to the principal/site manager/volunteering or community organisation.

If you believe the criminal history does not relate to you, or you wish to discuss this matter further please contact the Screening Unit on 9264 4477.

Yours sincerely

Brent Saraceni
